

Detached Bios

Alison Shell

Alison Grace has been involved with theatre her whole life, and is excited to be testing with film making. Alison has 4 years experience with govern school in acting. She dances at Vostrikov Academy of Ballet in old town Winchester, VA. Alison has been acting with Theatre Shenandoah for over ten years. her favorites include: Scotland Road, The Secret Garden, All I Really Need to Know I learned in Kindergarten, and The Sound of Music. She has dedicated most of her life learning how to make an audience feel what is meant to be portrayed.

Jeanne Ellen Russell

Jeanne has been acting in community theatre for years but this is her first real part in a feature film. When she is not acting, Jeanne runs a creative services business www.jrussellforhire.com.

Rich Church

Better known locally as a marginal singer, this is Rich's first foray into the world of acting. Retired from Shentel, he and his wife Kathy own The Market in Woodstock. He mentions often that he can't wait to see his name on the big screen!

Samantha Strong

Sam has been acting and writing since the age of 5, with two published plays and several key roles to her name. She is passionate about the arts and a lover of the dark side, which is why she's so excited to be a part of this project.

Lisa Mikitarian

Lisa is a writer but has experience acting in community theatre and in short locally produced films.

Evan Benton

Evan has been a casual fan of cinema since a young age and received his minor in Film Studies at GMU in 2010. Evan has been called a great liar, which he figures (hopes) translates well to both the stage and screen. This is his first film with writer-director Stephen French, but he is looking forward to a storied relationship.

Carolina Williams - Sound

Carolina is an upcoming Freshman at Central High School. She has played the cello since 6th grade and has played with the high school since her 2nd semester of 7th grade. She wishes to go to The Juilliard School to continue her career in the music arts.

Brent Funkhouser

Brent Funkhouser is a sophomore at Central High School. Brent has an interest in history and film making and often overlaps the two subjects. Brent is working as script supervisor and a makeup artist in Detached.

Macki Kraemer

